

West Virginia State Social Studies Fair

2018 Judges' Score Card

Affix Award Label Here

Judging Criteria

Score

Abstract and Research Methods	0-5 points per line
▪ Purpose of investigation is well-defined.
▪ Quality essential questions / research questions are used to drive the investigation.
▪ Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.
▪ Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.
▪ Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.
▪ Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.
▪ Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.
▪ References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.
Abstract and Research Methods Section Total	40 Points Possible

Oral Presentation	0-5 points per line
▪ Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.
▪ Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.
▪ Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.
▪ Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.
▪ Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.
▪ Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.
▪ Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.
Oral Presentation Section Total	35 Points Possible

Physical Display	0-5 points per line
▪ Display is self-explanatory and highlights the most relevant information.
▪ Data and other information are arranged coherently.
▪ Display is creative and/or unique.
▪ Display is neat, well-organized and free from grammatical, spelling and punctuation errors.
▪ Artifacts, charts, photographs, or technological devices are used effectively to enhance the display.
Physical Display Section Total	25 Points Possible

Total Score	100 Points Possible
--------------------	----------------------------

COMMENTS

- Strengths
- Areas of Improvement

Place Awarded (circle):	First Minimum Score: 90	Second Minimum Score: 80	Third Minimum Score: 70	Honorable Mention
--------------------------------	--	---	--	--------------------------

RULE COMPLIANCE - Rule violations may result in disqualification. JUDGES: Immediately report all suspected rule violations to the fair director or the director's designee. Violations must be reported prior to the conclusion of judging.

- Physical display exceeds maximum size limitations (36"x30"x48"). If so, document actual size: W: ___" D: ___" H: ___"
- Project poses a safety hazard or contains prohibited items (see rules for a list of prohibited items).
- Other rule violation: _____