West Virginia State Social Studies Fair

Purpose of investigation is well-defined.  Quality essential questions / research questions are used to drive the investigation.  Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.  Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.  Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.  Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.  Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.  References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.  Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible  Oral Presentation  Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.  Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.  Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.  Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.  Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.  Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.  Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.	Score 0-5 oints per line		MMENTS Strengths Areas of Improvement
Purpose of investigation is well-defined.  Quality essential questions / research questions are used to drive the investigation.  Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.  Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.  Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.  Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.  Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.  References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.  Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible  Oral Presentation  Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.  Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.  Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.  Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.  Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.  Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.  Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.	0-5		Strengths
Purpose of investigation is well-defined.     Quality essential questions / research questions are used to drive the investigation.     Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.     Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.     Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.     Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.     Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.     References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.      Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible  Oral Presentation     Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.     Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.  Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.  Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.  Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.  Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.  Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.		•
<ul> <li>Purpose of investigation is well-defined.</li> <li>Quality essential questions / research questions are used to drive the investigation.</li> <li>Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.</li> <li>Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.</li> <li>Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.</li> <li>Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.</li> <li>References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.</li> <li>Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible</li> <li>Oral Presentation</li> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>	oints per line
<ul> <li>Quality essential questions / research questions are used to drive the investigation.</li> <li>Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.</li> <li>Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.</li> <li>Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.</li> <li>Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.</li> <li>References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.</li> <li>Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible</li> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Project employs appropriate research methods using a variety of valid sources.</li> <li>Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.</li> <li>Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.</li> <li>Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.</li> <li>References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.</li> <li>Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible</li> <li>Oral Presentation</li> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Abstract is free of grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. Abstract length does not exceed 3 pages plus bibliography.</li> <li>Written summary provides a comprehensive overview of purpose, research methods, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.</li> <li>Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.</li> <li>References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.</li> <li>Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible</li> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Conclusions.</li> <li>Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.</li> <li>Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.</li> <li>References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.         Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible     </li> <li>Oral Presentation</li> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Conclusions are supported by sound evidence and are tied to research questions.</li> <li>Project goes beyond reporting facts. Student analyzes information; draws connections between ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.</li> <li>References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.         Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible     </li> <li>Oral Presentation</li> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul> ideas, events, or time periods; demonstrates the relevance of the research; or makes future predictions.  References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.  Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible  Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.  Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.  Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.  Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.  Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.  Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.  Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.  Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.
References are appropriately cited and documented in either APA or MLA format.  Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible  Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.  Introduction style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.  Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.  Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.  Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.  Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.  Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.
Abstract and Research Methods Section Total 40 Points Possible  Oral Presentation  Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.  Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.  Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.  Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.  Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.  Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.  Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.
<ul> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Introduction captures audience's attention and provides a clear statement of purpose.</li> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>	0-5
<ul> <li>Presentation style is creative and well-organized. Use of notes is limited and does not detract from the presentation.</li> <li>Student makes eye contact with judges and speaks in a clear and confident voice. Facial expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>	oints per line
<ul> <li>expressions and body language demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in the subject matter.</li> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Presentation demonstrates a strong level of understanding of purpose, content, findings and conclusions.</li> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Student uses elements of the physical display to support and/or enhance the oral presentation.</li> <li>Closing provides an appropriate summary of the project's purpose, findings, and conclusions.</li> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Responses to judges' questions demonstrate knowledge of purpose, methods, findings, and/or conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.</li> </ul> conclusions. Student responds appropriately if unable to answer a judge's question.
Oral Presentation Section Total 35 Points Possible
Orar reconductor Gootion Total Continue Costinue
Physical Display or Multimedia Presentation	0-5 oints per line
■ Display is self-explanatory and highlights the most relevant information.
<ul> <li>Data and other information are arranged coherently.</li> </ul>
■ Display is creative and/or unique.
<ul> <li>Display is neat, well-organized and free from grammatical, spelling and punctuation errors.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Artifacts, charts, photographs, or technological devices are used effectively to enhance the display.</li> </ul>
Physical Display Section Total 25 Points Possible
Total Score 100 Points Possible
Place Awarded (circle):  First Minimum Score: 90  Second Minimum Score: 80  Minimum Score: 80		Но	norable Mention
RULE COMPLIANCE - Rule violations may result in disqualification. JUDGES: Immediately report a		d rule vi	olations to the fair director or the director's designee. Violations must be reported prior to the conclusion of judging.  — Dhysical or multimedia display exceeds display area limitations (26"×20"×49"). If so, desument actus	Loizo: \\/:	" D.	" 山 . "
<ul> <li>□ Physical or multimedia display exceeds display area limitations (36"x30"x48"). If so, document actua</li> <li>□ Project poses a safety hazard or contains prohibited items (see rules for a list of prohibited items).</li> <li>□ Other rule violation:</li> </ul>	ı sıze: VV:	_ υ:	_ п: